

Episcopal School of Dallas

May 17, 2010

Dear Alumni,

The Episcopal School of Dallas learned today that it has been named a party in a civil complaint. As this is a matter of public record, we know that this claim will likely receive media attention. While our ability to comment on this matter is limited due to our desire to maintain confidentiality with student records, please know that ESD stands by its certain knowledge that the school acted in an appropriate, timely, and definitive manner.

Our primary purpose remains steadfast: the education and well-being of every student in our community. Should you be approached for comment, we respectfully ask that you refer all requests to Julie Clardy, our Director of Communications.

Faithfully yours,
